

No more manual temperature recording, save time today!

The AiroSensor is a wireless, cost effective data logger. It requires no manual intervention, banishing manual temperature records forever.

- Hassle free 'hands off' monitoring of storage areas, vaccine fridges, and more.
- Save valuable time with automated measurements.
- Data reports can be accessed from any smart device. Delivered daily, weekly, monthly. Click and save to store.
- Protect your products 24/7. Immediate alarms if temperature deviates set limits, preventing wastage.
- Easy install in 10 mins. No cabling. No complicated IT configuration.
- No expensive running costs and UK based support.
- NHS compliant, meets data protection regulations.
- No wifi needed (data port only).
- Complies with CQC guidelines on temperature recording.
- Trust IT approved system with no data storage needed.

“Every hospital in the country should be using this system.”

-NHS Emergency Surgery Team Leader

Try it now with a free no-obligation demo

Call us today on 01254 831375 and speak to one of our sales engineers about our experience with the NHS and to arrange a free demo.

